Cookie Policy

This policy explains cookies and their usage on our website. Please go through this policy to understand how we use cookies, why we use them and what information we collect. By using our website you agree to allow us to use cookies in accordance to this policy.

What are cookies?

Cookies in general are small files that contain information about your browsing experience. They could be stored in the browser or physically on your hard disk

Why do we need cookies?

We use cookies to personalize your browsing experience on our website. To remember your preferences when you revisit us. For example your login details, shopping cart content, which pages did you visit and so on.

Where are our cookies stored?

We use 2 types of cookies on our site.

1. Session cookies which are stored in your browser and are deleted once you close the browser.
2. Persistent cookies which are stored to your hard disk and kept alive even after you close your browser. Persistent cookies could be deleted manually or automatically when they reach their expiry date.

What do we collect in cookies?

We may collect your IP address, time zone, login information, browser version, operating system, the URL you came from, the pages you visit, the products you viewed, page response times, errors and the duration you spent on our website.

How to disable cookies?

Each browser allows disabling cookies. Please refer to your browser's help on how to disable and block cookies. You may also visit this website <http://www.aboutcookies.org/> for more information regarding the same.

Although it's possible to disable cookies, however it's not advisable as it may affect your browsing experience with us. For example you might not be able to login, or order from our e-shop and so on.

Final Closure

Kindly note that connecting-software has the full right to modify and update this cookie policy any time. You should check this page occasionally to ensure that you are aware of the changes.
